

Three Youths Lost in Tahquitz Canyon

Armored Car Vault Robbed Of $1-Million

FBI Reports Appears to Be An 'Inside Job'

TAMPA, Fla. — FBI — An armored car service vault believed to have contained more than $1 million was found burglarized today in what appeared to be an "inside job," the FBI said.

FEDERAL AGENTS said they would not be able to disclose the amount of money taken until they complete a survey of the contents of the vault. It contained both cash and checks, but the amount of cash was believed to be high.

The vault contained two days' worth of Christmas rush receipts from a number of department stores.

THERE WAS NO official comment on the subject, but officers said it appeared that the vault was either left open Monday night or else was locked with the time lock set to open the door at the burglar's convenience.

Officials of the firm, Rasdale Armored Car Service Inc., discovered Tuesday that the vault might have been entered. They said the burglar alarm sounded at 12:30 a.m. Tuesday but investigating officers found nothing amiss.

Army Cancels Contract, Loss Is $34 Million

WASHINGTON — The Army today canceled a contract, under which $34 million has already been spent, for development of an unmanned target-spotting plane.

Republic Aviation Corp., Farmingdale, N. Y., had been working on the project for the past 2½ years. The proposed aircraft was to be ground-controlled, equipped with radar and infrared detection devices, cameras for reconnaissance, flights near a battle front. Such flights are now assigned to manned aircraft.

NEAR LIVINGSTON

Abbeys Killed In Truck Crash

Warren "Ray" Abbey, 42, former captain of the Palm Springs Mounted Police and Cathedral City businessman, and his wife, Marjory, 49, were both killed when their pickup truck collided broadside with a flatbed truck and trailer loaded with steel.

The accident occurred Tuesday night near Livingston, Calif., a small farming community near Merced.

CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY patrolmen reported that the larger truck crossed the dividing strip on U.S. Highway 99 in an attempt to stop at a safe.

The pickup truck, in which the MEMBERS OF THE Mounted Police prepare to travel up Tahquitz Canyon to search for three 15-year-old Palm Springs High School sophomores who were last seen at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday. Members of the Mounted Police crowd around Chief of Police August G. Kettmann, second from right, and Glenn Neal and Lyman Banister, fathers of two of the boys, to hear the report from Banister concerning his search by air for the boys. He said he spotted campfires about the "7,000 foot level" and believed the hikers "to be alright."

One Injured As Car Rolls On Area Road

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Carolyn Rae Henderson, 21, of Hawthorne, was hospitalized in Ince Memorial Hospital here last night after a sports car driven by her husband, Richard, rolled over on a curve on Old Woman Springs Road near here, the California Highway Patrol reported today.

Mental Patient Surrenders Today

JACKSON, Ky. — A former mental patient who shot two officers and escaped into the woods Tuesday night from his besieged mountain cabin surrendered today to a posse of Kentucky state policemen and county officers.

3 YOUTHS LOST IN TAHQUITZ CANYON

More than a score of Palm Springs Mounted Police are combing Tahquitz Canyon late this morning in an attempt to locate three local boys who were last seen Tuesday morning at 8:30 a.m. They left for a hike up the canyon.

Objects of the search are Bill Dennis, 32-228 Sky Blue Water Trail; Richard Morris, 1940 Olive Way; and Merrill Moore, 615 North Calle Marcus. All three boys are 15 years old.

THE MOUNTED police, under the direct supervision of Chief of Police August G. Kettmann, Lt. Dale Thompson, and MP Capt. Clare Ballagh, were called about midnight to attempt a search for the boys.

Lyman Banister, father of Richard Morris, a flight instructor at Palm Springs Airport, undertook an air search at midnight for the boys, aided by Palm Springs Airport manager Roy Shreck, and returning about 1 a.m. said they had seen two fires above the second falls in Tahquitz Canyon and believed it to be the boys.

GOLDFINE REFUSES TO SURRENDER

BOSTON — Industrialist Bernard Goldfine, 67, refused to admit U.S. marshals into his hotel room for nearly 20 minutes today before they enlisted his son's aid and took him into custody on orders of a judge.

Goldfine, gift-giving friend of former Presidential Aide Sherman Adams, balked at opening the door of his 11th floor hotel room when the marshals knocked to carry out the orders of Federal Judge George C. Sweeney.

Returns To Base Safely

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI) — A Soviet-made Ilyushin-14 plane dropping military supplies to leftist Laotian rebel forces attacked and machine-gunned an unarmed American plane watching the operation, the U.S. Embassy reported today.

There apparently were no casualties on the American plane, though this was not confirmed immediately.

THE AMERICAN plane was crippled by the shooting but was able to make it back safely to Vientiane on one engine. The incident occurred Tuesday afternoon over the Vang Vieng area north of Vientiane. It was not known if the Ilyushin was manned by Russians or Communist bloc fliers.

Officials of the U. S. Embassy here said the American plane was assigned to the U. S. air attaché in Saigon, South Viet Nam. It was on loan to the embassy here to replace the aircraft regularly assigned to the air attaché in Vientiane which was damaged in the recent fighting for this capital city.

THE AIR FORCE said the American plane was a C-47 Skytrain and carried a crew of three men. The crew members were identified as:

Maj. Armand E. Reiser, 37, Arlington, Va., whose wife and four children are living in Saigon. Capt. William G. Von Platen, 40, San Diego, whose wife and three children are in Saigon. S. Sgt. Rex B. Percival, 36, Knobnoster, Mo., a bachelor who was aboard the plane as radio operator.

THE OFFICIALS said the U. S. plane was observing the Soviet air supply operation at the request of the Laotian government when it was attacked. In recent days, planes from Vientiane frequently have made flights to observe Russian Air drops of supplies to Communist and other leftist rebels in the Laotian jungles.

Embassy officials said the American plane was hit by bullets from a machine gun apparently fired from a window of the Ilyushin.

They said the Soviet-made plane dived at the American plane after firing at it, and then flew away in the direction of Communist North Viet Nam.

"It was an unprovoked attack on an unarmed American plane," one embassy official said. "Bullets knocked out one engine and tore several holes in the fuselage."

Desert Press Club Sets New Year's Party

The Desert Press Club at Palm Springs will hold its annual New Year's Party beginning at about 6 p.m., Thursday, in Press Club Headquarters at the Palm Springs Biltmore Hotel, it was announced today.

DPC President George Ringwald said that the relocation of the party had been occasioned because of lack of availability at the previous site for the party. Normal Press Club operating procedures will be in effect, Ringwald said.

Entertainment for the evening's action will be provided by Raul and Gustavo, mariachis; the Mary Jenkins Trio, a jazz-oriented threesome; Connie Barbeau with Larry Foy, one of the area's most respected vocal-piano teams, and Lewis and Sanchez, the two-man band who have set attendance marks here and in Las Vegas.

DUE TO PROTESTS

Animal Manure Law Delay Seen

Palm Springs new ordinance prohibiting the use of animal manure within the city, may be delayed until Jan. 11 meeting of the City Council, after letters of protest were received by the City Council this week.

Heavy protest is expected, and the council said Tuesday at its luncheon session at the Riviera Hotel that it would go along with a request by protestants to wait until the January meeting before taking final action on the issue.

THE COUNCIL approved the first reading of the ordinance at its meeting Dec. 21.

Matters that will be up for council action tonight include ordinances which will re-define building height and will enlarge the scope of employees required to

10,000 STRIKERS RIOT IN BELGIUM

BRUSSELS — More than 10,000 shouting Socialist-led strikers surged through the heart of Brussels for three hours today, smashing windows of buses, street cars and pre-government newspaper offices. There were sporadic scuffles between strikers and police.

Troops were dispatched to guard the office of Premier Gaston Eykens as Socialist strike leaders ordered workers into the streets again Thursday for new demonstrations against the government.

ONE NONSTRIKING streetcar worker was injured when he was manhandled by the anti-government demonstrators in Brussels. A government spokesman said a railway official was injured seriously by strikers in Liege.

In Ghent, gendarmes used tear gas to eject strikers who forced their way into the gas and electricity headquarters and tossed iron bolts and rocks at the police.

IT WAS THE first time tear gas had been used against strikers.

The march through Brussels was the biggest demonstration since the strike movement broke out eight days ago in protest against an austerity program proposed by the government.

But strong forces of mounted and truck-borne gendarmes and riot police — with paratroopers standing by — avoided any serious clashes with the demonstrators who whistled and shouted demands for the resignation of Catholic Socialist Premier Eykens.

Marine Killed In Head-on Crash

NEEDLES — Elwyn Horace Pavella, 40, a Marine stationed at Twentynine Palms, was killed Tuesday in a head-on collision on U. S. 66 about 8 miles west of the community of Bagdad.

John Ivan Polsen, 63, and his wife Alta, Clovis, N. M., occupants of the other car were injured seriously and taken to Barstow Community Hospital.

CRISIS IS BREWING IN SCOTLAND

EDINBURGH, Scotland — A crisis is brewing in Scotland because Scotsmen are drinking more wine during the holiday season than Scotch whisky.

"We were amazed to find that extremely delicate and fine sheries were not being written off as womanly drinks," the magazine "Scotland" said today.

The magazine said that the traditional celebration of New Year's Eve is dying out because Scots are whipping it up too much at Christmas time.

"You can see it reflected in the crowds that gather in Edinburgh and Glasgow to see the old year out . . . The packed multitudes are dwindling," the magazine said.

"The prodigal sons are still in bed recovering from Christmas, which has become more fashionable."

Kennedy Set For Revision Of Agencies

President-Elect Will Stamp Out 'Back Door' Contacts

By EDWARD COWAN
WASHINGTON — President-elect John F. Kennedy's first effort to reform the federal regulatory agencies is likely to be aimed at raising their ethics and wiping out "back door" contacts, a Kennedy aide said today.

Action along this line was one of many far-reaching recommendations to improve the agencies laid before the President-elect Monday in an 87-page report by James M. Landis.

A FORMER DEAN of the Harvard Law School and a member at various times of three of the federal agencies, Landis wrote the report for Kennedy on a hurry-up basis after the November election.

He called for appointment of a regulatory agency "czar" in the White House who would oversee the activities of the agencies in a "firm but friendly" way and exercise "imaginative and creative" direction.

IN VIGOROUS, sometimes biting language, Landis criticized the agencies and called for major changes in their procedures and personnel. He advocated establishment of new White House offices to lay down clear-cut government policy in the communications, transportation and power industries.

The 29,000-word report sharply attacked the way the agencies execute their duties — or fail to — and what Landis called their susceptibility to improper influence from the industries they regulate, the White House and senators and congressmen.

Cathey Funeral Rite Thursday in Tujunga Church

Funeral services for Mrs. Euphemia Elizabeth Cathey, 65, 10-966 Christine Way, Tujunga, who died Monday morning in Desert Hospital here, will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the First Methodist Church, Tujunga.

The Rev. Kenneth Watson, pastor of the church, will officiate. A native of Maryland, Nebr., Mrs. Cathey had lived in California 18 years, and in Palm Springs three months. She was a practical private nurse.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Del Davitt, 31-615 Avenida La Paloma, Palm Springs; a son, Cameron A. Cathey, Jr., Tujunga, and a sister, Mrs. Emma Todd, Tujunga, plus six grandchildren. Wiefels and Son mortuary is in charge of local arrangements. Interment will be in Glenhaven Memorial Park, Tujunga.

SAFETY FIRST IS ORDER of the instruction in the Wednesday-Saturday firearms safety program the Palm Springs Police Department will present for area youngsters at the training center range. DHS ROTARY YULE WINNERS LAUDED

DESERT HOT SPRINGS — Top winners in the Rotary Club sponsored Christmas decorations contests here were announced by contest chairman Emil Ludwig.

Winner of the $15 first prize for the home decoration category was Mrs. Betty Lukowski, 66-612 East Sixth Street; second prize, $10, went to Mrs. Marie Master, 66-311 West First Street, and third prize, $5, was awarded to John Kepner, Highlands subdivision.

First prize winner in the commercial and hotel category was awarded the Ali Baba Motel, 66-620 East Fifth street; second prize the San Jacinto Motel, 12-561 South Palm Drive, and third prize to Erikson's Cafe, Pierson Boulevard.

Honorable mention was given to 12 residences and business firms, and a special commendation was made to the Nativity Scenes at St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church and the First Baptist Church.

Judges Earl Farmer, Howard Morgan, Emil Ludwig, C. H. Russell, and W. L. Harrison observed decorations in 115 business places and 86 homes.

Beating Prices
ST. PAUL, Minn. (UPI)—While it may not be true that two can live more cheaply than one, the University of Minnesota's Institute of Agriculture says it costs less per person to feed a large family than a small one.

The per person cost of food in a family of five is 5 per cent less than in a family of four. In a family of six, it's 10 per cent less.

Police to Hold Gun Instruction Sessions Here

Area youngsters between the ages of 10 and 15 will be offered expert training in safe gun operation at 10 a. m. Wednesday and Saturday, in a program of the Palm Springs Police Department.

The course is designed to familiarize youngsters with safe and enjoyable handling of BB guns and firearms. The instruction will be given at the Police Training Center, west of Angel Springs off Highway 111. The Center is approximately two miles northwest of here.

Training officer Sgt. Dick Harries emphasized that a parental waiver is required for presentation at the training center prior to class enrollment. Waiver blanks—for signature of parents or guardians—are available at the police station.

Cataracts are the major single cause of blindness in America today. Some 200,000 Americans undergo surgery for cataract removal each year.

PAUPER'S SAVINGS SOUGHT BY GOV'T.

NEW YORK — The federal government today sought to obtain the $1,348 saved by a "model prisoner" who worked for a month in the penitentiary and went without cigarettes or candy so he could have money when he was released.

Ramon Rosario, who served nine and a half years in Leavenworth Penitentiary, Kan., on a narcotics conviction, ironically had socked the money away in U. S. savings bonds.

ROSARIO HAD BEEN sentenced in New York in 1951 to 15 years in prison and fined $11,000 for selling and possessing narcotics.

Rosario became a model prisoner. He worked in the penitentiary shoe factory and was paid $35 a month.

To provide for the day when he would get out, he started investing almost $15 a month of his pay in U. S. savings bonds, depriving himself of most of the things he could buy in the prison commissary, such as cigarettes and candy.

ROSARIO, NOW 66 years old, was ordered released a month ago with time off from his sentence for good behavior and another year off for working in the prison shoe shop.

He knew, however, he could not pay the $11,000 fine still standing against him, so he served another 30 days in jail to qualify for a pauper's oath.

But when he appeared last Thursday to take the oath, Asst. U. S. Atty. Stanley Schlessinger demanded that Rosario's bonds be turned over to the government. Rosario refused and was returned to the Federal House of Detention here.

Non-Christmas gift-buying accounts for $10.476 billion annually in sales.

O'Brian Wants to Quit Series

By GEORGE LAINE
Hugh O'Brian figures this will probably be his last season as television's Wyatt Earp and the prospect neither frightens nor amazes O'Brian.

Reclining in one of the spacious, beautifully decorated suites at Whispering Waters Hotel—which O'Brian owns in company with Pat Conway, Carolyn Jones, Dennis Weaver and Lloyd Bridges—the tall, muscular actor audibly delivered a sigh of relief.

"WHERE CAN YOU go with a series like this?" questioned O'Brian, who is now in his sixth season depicting the famed lawman. "We've had some good story material from time to time but I feel that TV westerns today have reached a point where if you've seen one, you've pretty well seen them all."

Despite the liability of playing a single role throughout the series, O'Brian doesn't feel he's been typed too heavily. "I played 'Destry' on Broadway last year and I did 'Two for the Seesaw' in summer stock, too," he recalled. "I'm keeping my hand in and I hope I'll get a crack at something real meaty soon."

HE'S TAKING DEAD aim on the motion picture bids for the leading role in "Requiem For a Heavyweight," Rod Sterling's prize-winning TV drama. "If I get that part—and can handle it the way I feel I can—you'll never hear of Wyatt Earp again," said Hugh.

In the meantime, O'Brian is busily canning the rest of his Earp series for this season, keeping an active hand in the operation of the Whispering Waters Hotel and watching his three bowling alleys—probably four by the time you read this—pile up the money.

He's optimistic about Whispering Waters. "This is becoming the kind of a place I'd frequent in Hollywood or the Valley," said O'Brian. "This Marv Jenkins is one of the greatest new piano finds around and we practically stole him away from a half dozen other clubs that wanted him."

Wait until Hugh sees Rene Robbins, the hot-shot little singer who gassed 'Vegas this summer, on the stand with Jenkins starting tonight. Even Wyatt Earp would stampede over her.

DON'T COMPLAIN about Christmas gifts you'd just as soon not received. How'd you like to be Carole Tregoff? She received an orange, three cookies and a gift-wrapped bar of soap—courtesy of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department.

Or Larry Foy? He received a bottle and doctor's orders not to drink it. Or Queen Elizabeth II? She received a fly whisk made of yak hair, some yak butter and some tea—courtesy of the Nepalese government.

Best gift went to Yehudi Menuhin, the tremendous violin virtuoso. He received doctors estimates in London Hospital that he'd suffer no after-effects of minor surgery he underwent last Friday.

NOTES OFF THE CUFF: Alyce Zeman, as much a part of the Hilltop Room last season as anyone, returned to the scene at the end of Palm Canyon Drive last weekend and will be there regularly from now on. . . . It wasn't a theft. . . . She left the Ranch Club of her own volition. . . . Henry Wilson, the new aide for Ray Blumenthal's Men's Shop, says he saw a man standing on the street outside the Cork 'n Bottle flip a coin, then go into Larry's Dugout. . . . Must've been a lazy day. . . .

Roy Randolph, flitting about town, is showing off a letter from President Eisenhower thanking Roy and the Palm Springs Optimists Club for the Chief Executive's life membership in same. . . . Ike didn't say when he'd drop in at meeting but did note that he "hopes to return more often and stay longer". . . .

MEL TORRE headlines the New Year's Eve party at the Palm Springs Riviera Hotel. Appearing with him are "Mr. Cha Cha," Rene Touzet and his Orchestra; the Billy Allen Orchestra; "Jo Jo" Gonzales and his Latinaires; the Nunez Brothers; ventro-impressionist Clifford Guest; plus the three Sylve Sisters. The line-up will provide continuous entertainment.

Cooperation Needed Most

When Dudley Steele lashed out at published and verbal condemnations of the Thermal Airport in Riverside the other day, his ire was apparently well founded. He might well have added that a few worthwhile things are built by tearing down people or institutions.

The criticisms of facilities at the Thermal Airport were leveled by the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning committee, supported by requested letters from various regional chambers of commerce. They alleged chuck holes in runways and hazardous conditions. This was part of a laudable objective of building up the airport for use as an airfreight terminal.

A. Edward Lytle, airport manager at Thermal, is on record in a letter dated Dec. 5 to the effect that these conditions are not present. After saying that chuck holes and loose gravel do not exist, he points out that the field is in constant use by large planes who would never subject themselves to such conditions. Lytle says no adverse report has been filed with the F.A.A. or Airport Commission and that the field is under constant scrutiny by the F.A.A. air traffic control station located there.

In essence, his report and the consensus of the Airport Commission is that the conditions complained about do not and never have existed and that the field actually is in very good shape.

Steele himself is a pilot, as are the other members of the commission. In addition, Steele very successfully operated the Los Angeles Municipal airport—a fair-to-middlin' operation—on a self-sustaining basis. He and his group should know from a practical standpoint whereof they speak.

Back of all this fuss very likely is the position of the County Airports Commission that the Thermal facility be self-liquidating and self-sustaining. Steele says that this is not only possible, but mandatory—mandatory because the Board of Supervisors have refused to assess the public for this purpose and most recently refused to consider a bond issue.

Improvements are necessary before the Thermal port can be developed as a major airfreight facility. These consist partially of building improvements but primarily of a runway extension. Steele not only believes that this can be accomplished for $300,000 rather than the Planning group's estimate of $576,000, but asks that the whole project be soundly planned and financially self-liquidating.

Thus it would appear that the chuckholes might be present in the planning stage, rather than on the runways.

The whole idea of development of the Thermal port is good. Experienced and competent help is available to the Planning Committee. Friction at this stage should be replaced by cooperation.

Get Fast, Fast, Fast Relief

NEW YORK — Still using electricity produced by one of those messy old fossil-fueled plants? Well, switch to atom powered electricity and get fast, fast, fast relief.

This seemed to be the sense of a highly technical press conference we stumbled into at Consolidated Edison the other day, when we dropped in to inquire the way to vespers at Luchow's. Columbia University's really great Dr. John R. Dunning, who is so alert he might be described as a present-minded professor, cleared away some of the technical smog for us over a fog-bound martini, later.

"SOME RECENT studies show that this country has perhaps a hundred times as much power potential in its uranium and thorium reserves than it has in its coal, oil and gas," this bonafide atomic pioneer told us. "We're going to have to face up to the fact that we're running out of fossil products one hell of a lot faster than we're running out of the fissionable stuff that can also create heat, and therefore boil water into steam, and therefore turn turbines and make electricity."

"By 1980 we'll have accepted atomic-powered utilities plants as routine. By the year 2,000 we won't be able to get along without them."

IT IS THIS KIND of thinking that prodded seven investor-owned electric companies serving New York state to underwrite the tune of better than $10,000,000 a match-race between General Electric and the General Atomic division of General Dynamics, Inc.

The two companies have adopted different approaches to the problem of trying to produce power from the bursting atom as cheaply as it can spring from the traditional sources of coal, oil and gas.

THE COMPANIES, in turn, will throw another $10,000,000 on the barrelhead to prove to the satisfaction of the utilities companies, which must make money for investors, that the cheapest way to produce this stuff without which our present security could not exist is the GE system, Or the GA.

Each will spend most of the money on research, aimed at deciding in advance whether a 300,000,000 kilowatt atomic power house would actually be able to compete against the kind that dot the land today. The decision will be made in time by a non-profit organization named the Empire State Atomic Development, Associations, Inc., which Dr. Dunning heads.

WE WON'T GO into the relative processes or merits of the rival systems now engaged in a contest that could help shape the future of our great-great-grandchildren. And for a simple reason: We're dumb. But it was exciting to see responsible Americans concerning themselves with such work, and fencing with vision.

New York was chosen for the great experiment because it pays medium prices for the fuel which stokes its powerhouses. The going price in New York is cheaper than the costs of Maine and Washington, dearer than those paid by utilities concerns which sit on the coal reserves of West Virginia and Pennsylvania or squat on the oil of Texas, Oklahoma and California.

IF THE PRICE of atomic power can be hammered down to the level of traditionally produced power (and it is getting amazingly close, experimentally) we will have tapped an eternity of muscle.

It can't, a lot of nice guys are out 20 million bucks.

BILL FORD, OF the Detroit Fords, honored along with Jinx Falkenberg at the Waldorf Astoria banquet of the cerebral palsy foundation the other night said the wisest thing I've ever heard about such fund-raising to provide the research to defeat a disease.

He said, "Our business is to put ourselves out of business."

Poets Should Shovel, Then Write

WASHINGTON — If — Next to young love, which can happen in any climate, the favorite topic of poets, song-writers and other ethereal types is — you should pardon the expression — snow.

Countless thousands of verses have been penned extolling this wintry fallout as the greatest thing since manna, and I think I know the reason for this. Poetry and song writing is indoor work.

A COMPOSER CAN go to the window, cast his soulful eyes upon the snow-laden landscape and then spend the rest of the day, by the fire, thinking up words that rhyme with "wonderland."

There are times — this being one of them — when I wish I could grab these snow hymnists by the scruffs of their necks, plunk them down in the suburbs and force them to make their way to the city.

I would like to see them spend 5 minutes putting chains on car wheels only to discover, as I did a few hours ago, that the car wouldn't start.

THEN, AFTER they had paid the service station for making a house call at the same rate charged by neurosurgeons, I would like to see them walk four blocks through a foot of snow to fetch a shovel with which to extricate the auto from a roadside drift into which it had skidded.

Then, after they had reached the highway, I would like to see them get out of the car and remove the chains in order to avoid clanking along for 10 miles on pavement that already had been cleared by the snowplow.

I ALSO WOULD have them forget to bring their gloves so that they would have to perform this operation stiff-fingered and would be able to gash a thumb while trying to undo the chains. Moreover, I would make certain the chains were the "simple" strap-on variety which only require 10 minutes longer to take on and off than the regular variety and which fall off by themselves once the auto is in motion.

AND, FINALLY, I would have them spend a day in a snow-bound, hunkalong with three young sculptors, who have to make 47 trips outside to carve a snowman, who have to be swaddled and unwaddled in heavy boots, pants and jackets before and after each trip, who leave the living room carpet saturated with the residue, and run up the fuel bill by leaving the door open.

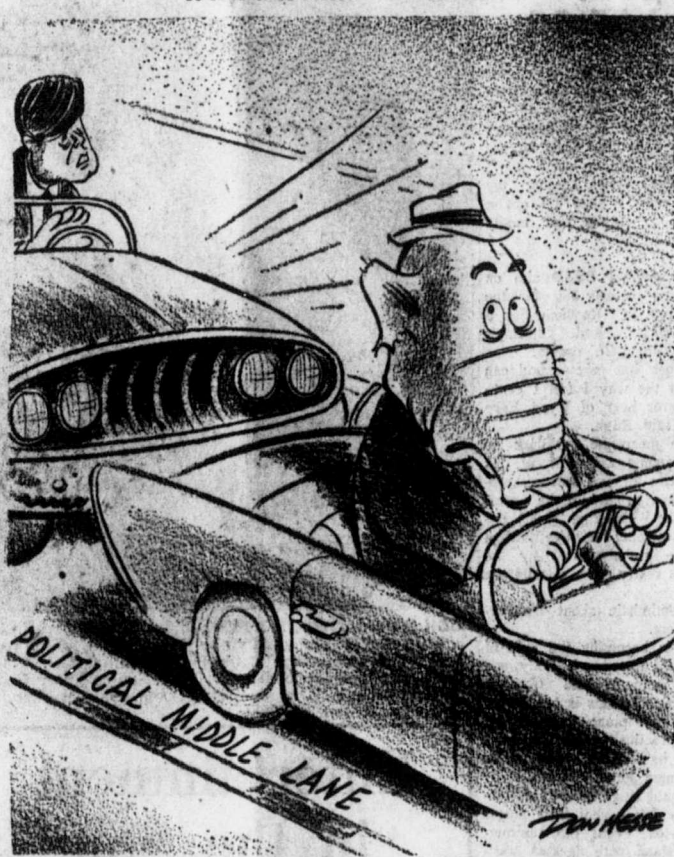

All of this, I'll warrant, would bring about a revolution in snow-fall literature and lyrics. But if personal experience didn't do the trick, I could acquaint the poets and song-writers with some impersonal statistics.

FOR ONE THING, it costs a city like Washington some $30,000 an inch in maintenance work for every inch of snow that falls. For another, shoveling 15 inches of snow from a sidewalk 50 feet long and five feet wide requires as much energy as lifting 1,350 pounds.

I'd like to see some composer try to set those lines to music.

—Dick West

'Honk! Honk! — Honk!

This Side of The Sun

By Phat

The desert is blooming, straining at its seams, but there is still room for more baseball teams.

That should make Florida mad—or, at least, slightly irked.

RIGHT NOW, there are 18 teams in the Major Leagues. Ten in the American League and eight in the National circuit.

Next year, there will be 20, 10 in each league.

When there were only 16, eight in each league, 12 of the teams trained in Florida in the spring, four in the southwest.

And, climactically, the four in the southwest got in more action than the 12 in the southeast.

OF THE 18 TEAMS this year, five will train in the southwest, 13 in Florida. But according to plans now under way, that ratio may change when both teams sport 10 clubs each.

For there is an active movement under way, backed by enthusiasts from San Bernardino and Riverside to deep into the Imperial Valley, to lure more of the teams to the southwest, especially the desert area.

THE COMING of the Los Angeles American League Angeles to the Polo Grounds for spring training is the entering wedge. The Dodgers spurned us, too many commitments in Florida.

But the Dodgers spent much of their time in Florida last spring, twiddling their thumbs and watching the rain come down.

The Angels (knocking on wood) won't have that hassle.

THE THING IS, that if the Angels have a successful spring training season here, they'll open the gates for other Major League teams.

And Florida's edge over the southwest will vanish.

Out of the 20 teams in the Majors next year, we may pick up a few from the southeast. And why not?

OUTSIDE of the Polo Grounds in Palm Springs there are many spots in the Desert Empire which provide ideal conditions for Major League training.

In fact, Walter O'Malley and Buzz Bavasi of the Dodgers were looking over the desert area last week. They are reported interested in a site near Thousand Palms.

TWO NEW TEAMS are coming into the National League next spring and there is a determined move to bring them to the desert for spring training.

There's a committee functioning now which takes in all of the high and low desert areas, headed by John Haskell, which is going all out to bring the majors here.

HASKELL SAYS that climatically, accommodations and facilities, "We have it."

So it may be that in a few years, the Cactus League, composed of four teams against 12 in the Florida Grapefruit League, this year, may take the top spot.

And who knows, besides being the Winter Golf Capital of the World, we'll be the Spring Baseball Capital.

STAN DELAPLANE:

Home of Tatzelwurm

Kitzbuehel in the Austrian Tyrol is a skiers' town, full of sleigh bells and concertina music.

From its Middle-Ages walls, the mountains rise white and snowy into snow-blown skies. A rushing little river runs through the lower valley. And the town streets run crookedly up and down hill through gates built by wicked medieval Dukes.

IT WAS JUST before the season's opening when I got off the little peanut whistle train and registered into the Hotel Kalauer.

It turned out to be an excellent small hotel — great down comforters on the bed and rosy-cheeked, plump Austrian waitresses in the dining room.

UP ON THE HILL, the elegant, chalet-like Grand Hotel had not yet opened.

But Praxmar's down in town still served whipped cream and sachertorte. And the local brandy had the same heart-warming taste that I remembered.

PRICES HAVE risen considerably since I was here five years ago. Then a double room with all meals at the Grand Hotel went for $14 per day.

Today the hotel quotes the same room at $21 a day.

Ski clothing, five years ago selling at a fourth U.S. prices, are now almost equal to Abercrombie and Fitch.

And, alas, the local Weinbrand has maintained its potency but doubled its cost.

KITZBUEHEL CAME to prominence in 1935 when the Prince of Wales visited here. He took a short ski run and went down to the Eggerwirt where he ate a Tiroler Knoedel, a local dumpling.

He pronounced it good. And the Kitzbuehel people wept with joy at his Royal taste.

From there on, the town moved onward to a comfortable income, selling ski clothes and mending broken legs. Kitzbuehel was made.

THE MOST CURIOUS history of the curious town concerns the Tatzelwurm. (It takes a curious reporter to find out these things.) The Tatzelwurm was a local dragon — when dragons were in fashion.

HIS APPETITE was curious, too. For he dined on nothing but Kitzbuehel virgins. Without even a Diner's Club card.

This unusual fodder was served to him by the Kitzbuehlers themselves. For the Tatzelwurm had a ferocious temper. And nothing angered him more — as with most dragons — than an empty stomach.

CAME A DAY (according to legend) when Kitzbuehel was out of dragons.

"We are 86 on Tatzelwurm food," said the village elders. "What now?" And they shivered to think of the dragon's wrath.

They then decided to search the surrounding countryside — the Tatzelwurm, I imagine, sitting at the table and complaining about the slow service.

THEY KIDNAPED a King's lovely daughter.

This was a terrible mistake. For unknown to the elders and the King, himself, the Princess had been wooed and well by a passing troubador.

So, when the Tatzelwurm was served this deep-dish dumpling, he rose with a horrid cry. Flung down his napkin and has not patronized the town since.

THIS CHARMING legend is painted on the wall above the bar at Praxmar's. A terrible Tatzelwurm is taking a terrible bite at a painted virgin.

It seems a curious advertisement for the restaurant business.

Dear Abby...

...by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I have had an argument going on about you for several years. I say you are a man and that picture and pen name you use is all a front. You always seem to take the man's part, and never give us women a break. Come clean. You are a man, aren't you? JANET

DEAR JANET: Please read the letter below...

DEAR ABBY: Just what have you got against men? I'll bet some guy dumped you over years ago and you've hated men ever since. I'd like to see you side with a man once and admit that some of these problems can be the woman's fault. But of course you never will, because all you dames stick together.

BRUCE

DEAR ABBY: I have been married only a year and my husband can't keep his eyes off other women. He says he just "likes people" — but they are always female. I have bawled him out, acted hurt and even tried to make him jealous. Nothing works.

He gets plenty of affection at home and I am considered a good-looking woman myself, so what makes him act like this, and what can I do about it? DISTURBED

DEAR DISTURBED: His male hormones make him act like this and there is nothing you can do about it. Some men just like to "look" — which is harmless. (It could be a holdover from the days when they were still shopping.) When a man stops appreciating a good-looking woman, he will stop appreciating you. Grin and bear it.

DEAR ABBY: I started going steady with Wayne after knowing him three weeks. He doesn't go to my school so I really don't know him very well. I received a phone call from a girl who said she had gone steady with Wayne for a year and that I broke them up.

I never met this girl but I hear she doesn't have a very good reputation. Wayne says to forget it, as he hardly knows her, but she has had a crush on him for years. Who should I believe? She keeps calling me and I am getting nervous. I am only 17 and have never fought over a boy and don't want to fight over this one. I am inexperienced in such matters. Can you help me? BOTHERED

DEAR BOTHERED: You shouldn't go steady with a boy you know as slightly as Wayne. If he proves to be trustworthy in other situations, then believe him. Refuse to talk to the girl on the phone. She sounds like a bitter little trouble-maker.

Clubwomen Plan Program on Antiques

Welcoming the New Year with an exceptionally fine presentation, Mrs. Glenn B. Watson, program chairman, will bring to the Palm Springs Woman's Club, Monday, January 2, Jane Hamilton, acknowledged authority on antiques, speaking on "A Thing of Beauty Is a Joy Forever."

Displaying a vastly interesting and costly collection, featuring rare old glass, gleaned from many sources, and blending beauty with fascinating historical Americana, Jane Hamilton brings to Palm Springs a new slant on antiques, and their place in the modern home. And it will be like a coveted invitation into exclusive homes to see those rarities in modern settings and practical usage.

Members and their guests will also deem it a privilege to view her unusual color slides of exquisite beauty, which will be shown at this time.

Mrs. George O. Wheeler, president, will conduct the meeting which opens at 2 p.m. in the clubhouse at 314 S. Cahuilla. The stage program follows, after which refreshments will be served at the tea table.

Mrs. Chester Matson, tea chairman, will be assisted by her committee including: Mmes. Thurman Arnold, Duane Beckwith, Doak Davis, Russel Frey, Cornelius Maffie, and Don L. Newton.

Palm Springs Personages Prints Soon

Palm Springs Personages, the desert's first "who's who" register, goes into publication the first of the year, publisher Hildy Crawford said today.

"We are very pleased at the response to the letters sent out," Mrs. Crawford said, "but a few have not been heard from yet, and we are holding publication a few days to allow these cards to come in. The letters were sent out in series, with different return dates, but all holding cards may fill them out and return them for the rest of this week."

The book, which is not a social register, will list Palm Springs residents and home owners who are leaders in different fields, have contributed notably to the growth of Palm Springs, or are well known. A few Coachella Valley residents, outside of Palm Springs are being listed this year, with more to be added next year, according to Mrs. Crawford. Around 400 families will be included in this first edition, which will be printed in January.

Around Town

... with Hildy Crawford

A sunshiny day with the Palm Springs label... and the pleasant setting of the garden terrace of their West Tahquitz Drive home... was party insurance... when George and Alta Roberson hosted their annual Christmas Day party... This is a party that has been a holiday custom since 1922... with only two breaks... It was held at Desert Inn all the years the Robersons were there... and was missed the year the Inn was sold... It upset quite a few Christmases last year... when the Robersons couldn't have it because they were in Honolulu... and even the weather went rainy...

An ornamented Christmas tree stood at the top of the steps leading up from the garden... and Christmas decorations were hung on the mantel of the outdoor fireplace on the lanai... In the center of the terrace the big Mexican acacia tree was in bloom as it usually is at Christmas... but not at the stage to attract bees... as it does some years... Guests carried around cups of eggnog and glasses of bloody marys... and admired Christmas tree earrings... a skirt with appliqued Christmas trees... Win Becker's hat which was a flat holly wreath with fruits... a Christmas gift tattersall vest... a Christmas sweater... and talked about the Christmas Eve party at Barbara and Barney Hinkle's Thunderbird home... Wearing a gay Christmas apron... Ruth Valeur was helping her mother receive the guests... and sign the guest book... the Tom Kieleys were there with their children... and Barbara Coffman came (Earl was a victim of too much Christmas)... Mrs. Nate Milnor came with her houseguest Mrs. Virgil Davidson of Los Angeles... and Harry Joe and Dorothy Gray Brown had Irene Stevens and Tom Mercola... Chatted with Charles Becker... who was busy getting all the sunshine he could... before taking off for three weeks in the midwest... Their daughter and her husband the Charles Bakers were with them... Paul and Trudy Reynolds were there (Trudy gay in that Christmas tree skirt)... Margaret and Solle Manasse... the Billy Maloufs (who had a family Christmas at their Via Las Palmas home)... Dottie and Earl Buckingham, Kay and Dolph Oborgfel... Mary and Ken Evans... Also... the Carl Lykkens, Gordon Prentices, Irving Snyder... Mary and Harold Hicks, the Fred Ingrams, Frank Ryans... Kay and Howard Morris... Joe and Phyllis Froggatt, Ethel and Jack Luccarini (it was Jack's first party since his recent illness)...

The Ray Goulds were there... the Frank Ryans, Emma Gale... Vie and Bud Graves, Ruth Manseau, the Walt Sibberts... and more... who came and went... Turkey and ham... and chafing dishes of hot chicken livers... were featured on the buffet and Myrtle and her girls passed platters of hot onion hors d'oeuvres...

This party is one of the pleasantest ways of saying "Merry Christmas"...

Another party that's been going on for 14 years... was the children's and parent's Christmas Party which Joyce and Noel Clarke hosted at their Beverly Hills home... The hostess wore a big red bow on her toe... not entirely from Christmas spirit... but because it was broken...

Guests... who enjoyed Goo Goo the Clown... the well-sacked Santa Claus (the Clarks' beautiful young daughter Nikki helped distribute the gifts)... and the delicious buffet... included Grace Pope and her daughter-in-law Barbara Shields... who is visiting Grace in her Beverly Hills home... on her first California visit in 14 years... Grace is due down here in January... Sally and Holly Morse (they have a new house in L.A. but will be down here soon)... Sam and Jerri Firks (he's a Desert Inn stockholder)... frequent Palm Springs visitors Jack and Cecil Sullivan... who together with Stan and Kay Gless and Gavin and Jo Herbert will be occupying one of the Ranch Club Estates' homes for the New Year... Larry and Venice Finley (they'll also be at the Ranch Club for New Years)... The Paul Ellises and daughter Tricia (they have a home at the Ranch Estates... and will be there this weekend)... the Joe Benas (she's Melinda Markey daughter)... Paul and Renee Coates and youngsters Timmy, Kevin and Jaron (Jaron will be one of the Rose Bowl Parade Queens) on the Burbank float... son Paul and Renee... who will be houseguesting here with the Clarks... will motor up to Pasadena early New Years Day... George Shaw and many more

The Clarks' two youngest daughters Debby and Sandy were there almost to the last... with Sandy finally falling asleep in the big red chair in front of the fireplace... with a "Merry-Christmas-to-all-and-to-all-a-goodnight" look on her face...

Best Christmas gift for members of the Palm Springs Float committee...

Herbert and Gayle Burns Host Christmas Eve Party

Christmas Eve at the Herbert Burnses' 400 Apartment found the same friends who assemble year after year for their annual party, with some new faces added and a few of the old ones were missing. Two guests who have not missed being with the Burnses for 13 years were, Mrs. Bert Dutcher of Appleton, Wisconsin and Palm Springs, and Reed Hubbell, one of the original owners of the beautiful Desert Garden Date Shop.

A buffet supper, music, good friends and good talk made up the ingredients of a happy evening. The host who has an amateur radio station, could not resist firing up the equipment so the guests could talk to the far corners of the world.

Guests included: Mr. and Mrs. Jack Grigsby of La Jolla, Mrs. Elizabeth Stewart of La Jolla and Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Ford Munn and sons Neil and Dent, Reed Hubbell, Mr. and Mrs. Harold T. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Matthews, Mr. and Mrs. Bow Herbert, Mr. and Mrs. Frances Pruitt, Tom Donnan, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Crockett, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Matson, George Lingo of Anchorage, Alaska and Palm Desert, Jerry Brittingham, Mrs. Bert Dutcher and Dick Noel.

SUNAIR Rulofsons Spend Yule With Downs'

By JEAN PATANE

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Rulofson and their young daughters, Gretchen and Heidi, drove down from their home in Sacramento, arriving last Wednesday night, to spend Christmas with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Downs and her brothers, Jay, Bob and Dennis, at their home on Palo Verde Drive. They left Monday planning to visit friends along the way and to spend a few days with his parents in Santa Cruz.

Spending this week at the Sunair Terrace are Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Scott from Seattle, Wash. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph S. Ahern from New York who are visiting friends in the area while touring Southern California, and Mr. and Mrs. Earl D. Brown of Lummis Island, Wash. Christmas weekend guests at the Sunair Terrace included Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Griffin of Tarzana, Mr. and Mrs. Richard N. Smith from Whittier, Mr. and Mrs. Don Pachter of Glendale, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Huseby from Arcadia here to visit friends, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Posey of Vista and Mr. and Mrs. Ted Engelman from San Mateo.

Mr. and Mrs. Don F. Hinkley returned Monday after spending Christmas with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Balentine at their home in Manhattan Beach.

Spending the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. Wilson D. Ellis at their home on Hillcrest Road is his sister, Miss Alice Ellis, who arrived last week from her home in Berkeley.

Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Liljeqvist drove down from their home in Salem, Ore., last week to spend the next two months with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Eckstrom at their home on Rodeo Drive.

Christmas weekend guests at the Melrose Apartments were Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Teasdale of Alhambra and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Caward who left Tuesday for their home in Arcadia after visiting with her brother and sister - in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Vose, desert rockologist.

Mr. and Mrs. George Patrick spend Christmas Eve and Christmas Day at the home of their daughter and family, the Carl Northcutts in Arlington. Their grandchildren, Ricky and Terry, returned with them to spend a few days in the desert. Tuesday, en route to Los Angeles, the Patricks took them home and when they return Wednesday they will bring Gale, Jacqueline and Wallace with them for a few days visit.

FIREMAN ENGINEER MARIO COLLETTI sets up and explains the new Fire Department demonstration kit to better help local organizations understand the importance of Fire Prevention and the use of the resuscitator. The first program was held at Ramon Trailer Park last week and will be presented during the coming year to other trailer parks and civic organizations. (Fire Department Photo)

FIRE DEPARTMENT GIVES LECTURES

A group of 165 persons saw a graphic demonstration in fire prevention and artificial respiration last week, at Ramon Trailer Park Recreation Hall.

Personnel of the Palm Springs Fire Dept. put together this valuable educational feature, which they plan to give before any interested group, as a public service. Battalion Chief Warren Heath in charge, said this, the first demonstration was arranged by request of the Ramon Men's Club.

Incidentally, the mouth to mouth system is not new, as most suppose. It was developed in Biblical times, Elisha reviving the son of a Shunammite by this ancient system. Posing as a patient, and assisting was Fire Capt. Charles (Chuck) Lewis.

CAPTAIN HARRIS, A Red Cross instructor holding a Red Cross certificate, says artificial respiration is indicated whenever the victim's breathing has stopped, or when breathing is impaired. This may be due to water immersion, electric shock, asthma, heart stoppage, or in case of prostration by smoke or noxious fumes.

The firemen brought with them their new mechanical resuscitator, literally a "breathing machine," demonstrating with a rubber diaphragm how the machine forces air into the lungs, at the rate of about 12 times a minute for adults, and 20 times per minute for young children. As many as three persons may be treated at one time by this life saving machine.

VISITING ALASKAN DIES AFTER THREE WEEKS HERE

Irl Amos Thatcher, 69, a resident of Palm Springs only three weeks, died at Desert Hospital Saturday following a long illness. A native of Nebraska, he was a resident of Ketchikan, Alaska, for 45 years, where he was formerly employed as a salesman for a commercial sales brokerage firm in Ketchikan.

Funeral services were to be held at 10 a.m., today, from the Wiefels and Son Chapel with the Rev. Fredrick Barnhill, pastor of St. Paul's in the Desert, officiating. Interment will be in Sunnyside Cemetery in Long Beach.

He is survived by his wife, Abbie, and a daughter, Barbara Stambaugh, both of Ketchikan, a son, John F. of Seattle, Wash., and a brother, Ivan, of Burlingame.

Thatcher had been in ill health for some time and came to Palm Springs for a rest. He is a charter member of Alaska Elks lodge 1429, and was a member of the American Legion there for 40 consecutive years. He was also a member of the Pioneers of Alaska.

Francis Trombley Gets Promotion

Larry D. Trombley, son of Francis Trombley of Palm Springs, was promoted to private first class while serving with the communications Electronics Schools Battalion at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego.

COUNTY BOND TOTALS SHOW BIG INCREASE

Riverside County's increase of 15.9 per cent in sales of United States Savings Bonds for January-November as compared to the same period of last year put it in the leading counties for Southern California's improved position.

Volunteer county chairman Fred C. Jennings said sales for this county for the 1960 January-November period were $2,837,230. For the same time last year they were $2,447,573. For November of this year they were $228,784.

Southern California figures were: January-November of this year, $158,919,912; for the same period of 1959, $155,000,882 — an increase of 2.2 per cent. For November they were $13,626,657.

Edwards Sparks Tribe Win

Buckets 34 Points In Victory

Mark Edwards, Palm Springs Indian guard, took over Tuesday night when Bosco Tech's basketballers contained the Tribe's leading scorer, Tyrone Taylor, and dumped 34 points through the netting to pace coach Jim Workman's quintet to a 61-54 win.

Edwards effort was needed for the opposition worked hard to blanket Taylor and his total was four points.

Edwards started out strong, swishing 15 points through the bucket to give the Indians a 25-14 first period lead.

THE TRIBE added 16 in the second period to hold a 41-27 lead at half time.

Bosco Tech came back in the second half to narrow the gap but Edwards had already clinched the game.

Gus Walton scored 16 points for second high for the Indians, Ron Studebaker had five, Taylor four and Reyes two for the starters.

THE INDIANS, eliminated by San Jacinto Monday in the first round of championship play, are in the consolation round.

The Perris gymnasium is dark today and action in the second annual Lions Club tournament there will be resumed at noon tomorrow.

IN THE CHAMPIONSHIP bracket Elsinore eliminated San Jacinto 35-29; Perris beat Indio 48-35; Yucaipa bested Banning 48-34 and Victor Valley downed Beaumont, 53-41.

The winners will meet in the semi-finals tomorrow.

The Tribe's opponents for tomorrow have not been announced.

Tuesday's score:
(61) PALM SPRINGS BOSCO TECH (54)
P-1 Taylor Van Winkle (4)
P-2 Reyes Schoeney (9)
C-3 Studebaker Batlocky (9)
C-4 Walton Brauket (13)
C-5 Edwards Thompson (21)
SCORING: Bosco Tech—None.
SCORE BY QUARTERS:

Harp Appointed Head Coach for Cornell Gridders

ITHACA, N. Y. — Tom Harp, backfield coach at Army, today was named to succeed George (Lefty) James as head coach of the Cornell University football team.

Harp, 33, will be the youngest head football coach in the Ivy League.

James was fired as head coach following the Thanksgiving Day Cornell-Pennsylvania game, which ended one of the Big Red's worst seasons. Cornell won only two of nine games this year.

Lakers Drop Into Third NBA Spot

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — Coach Fred Schaus' Los Angeles Lakers, resting uncomfortably in third place in the Western Division of the National Basketball Association, tonight play their Eastern Division counterparts, the Syracuse Nationals.

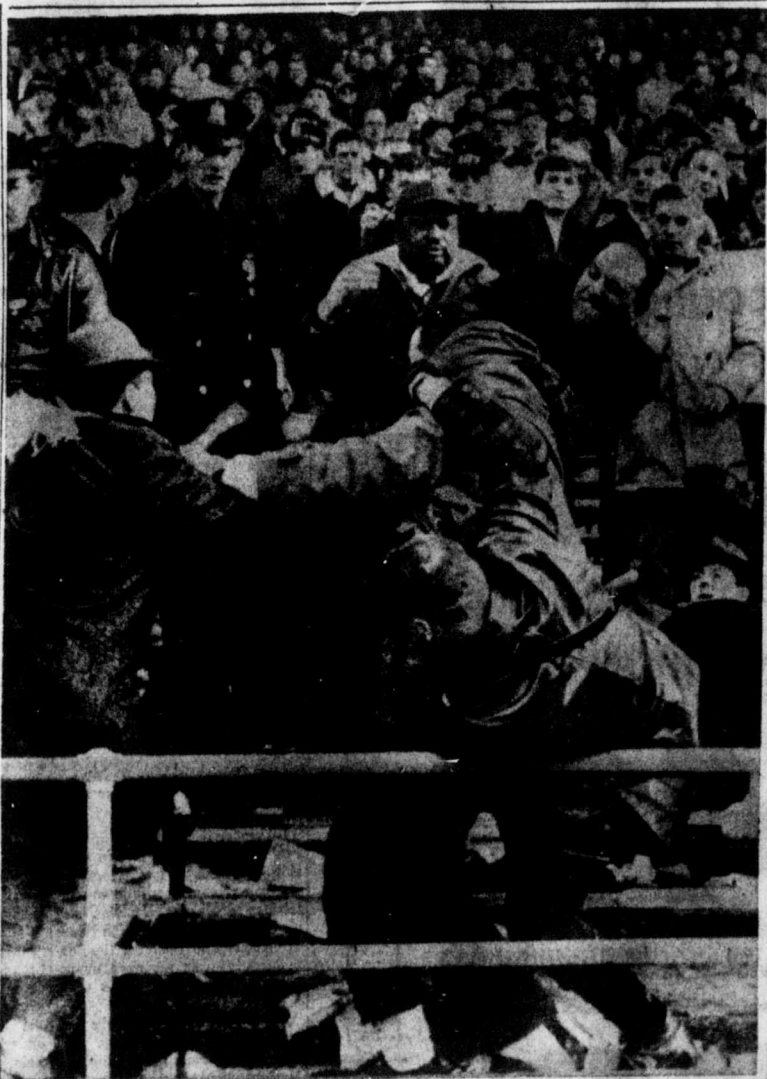

Despite Elgin Baylor's 44 points Monday night, the Lakers lost to New York.

BRAVES SIGN ROOKIE

MILWAUKEE — The Milwaukee Braves have signed 22-year old second baseman Gerard Rosenthal of Brooklyn, N. Y., and assigned him to the Cedar Rapids, Iowa club in the Three-I League.

Evashevski Wins TD Club Honors

NEW YORK — The Touchdown Club of New York will present its top annual award to Forest Evashevski, who has just relinquished his position as head football coach at the University of Iowa in order to become the school's director of athletics. The award will be made to Evashevski on Jan. 26.

Santa Anita Strike Called Off by Clerks

Four Features on Holiday Weekend Program at Track

ARCADIA — UP — Negotiators for the pari-mutuel clerks and California race tracks reached agreement early today on a new contract ending any threat of a strike at Santa Anita race track.

The agreement, reached after nearly 18 hours of continuous negotiations, gives pari-mutuel clerks a $1-a-day raise in the next three years. It is retroactive to Sept. 17 when the old contract between the clerks and Federation of California Race Tracks expired. The clerks, members of Local 280 of the Pari-Mutuel Employee Guild, had asked for a $3-a-day raise.

IN ADDITION to the wage boost the race track agreed to additional contributions to the Pension fund of 35 cents the first year, 30 cents the second and 35 cents the third year of the pact.

A Santa Anita spokesman said the increase accepted by the clerks was almost the same as the original offer made by the race track federation when negotiations opened last September.

An announcement was made Tuesday evening that the union had decided not to strike today and force cancellation of racing at the luxurious winter track.

WITH THE STRIKE threat called off, racing resumed today with the Palm Springs Purse the feature of the second day. Willie Shoemaker and Het's Pet were favored in the $10,000 event which drew a field of 10 fillies.

Going against the former Hollywood Park stakes winner were Cara Sorella, Patricia L., Mighty Fair, Annie Alma, Bully's Lady, Burnt Coral, Kantankerus Lady and Amri-An.

FOUR STAKES will mark the holiday weekend at Santa Anita following the record opening of the 55-day season Monday.

Attractions for the thousands of visitors in the southland for near-Pasadena's Rose Tournament and Rose Bowl Classic, will be:

$25,000 California Breeders' Trial this Friday, for California-foaled Derby prospects going seven furlongs, has among eligibles to start Pappa's All Sullivan's Bud, and Olden Times.

$25,000 Malibu Stakes at seven furlongs with "Horse of Year" Kelso among Maturity stars likely to be seen in action and $20,000 Las Flores Handicap, for fillies and mares going six furlongs, will be the double bill for Saturday.

$25,000 San Gabriel 'Cap at 1 1/8 miles over the spectacular hillside - infield turf course will be staged on the New Year holiday Monday. In action will be foreign and American top grass runners.

Regular post time of 1 p.m. for the first race with gates opening at 11 a.m. will prevail for the Santa Anita races that will extend through March 11.

Hilton Confers on San Diego Move

SAN DIEGO — Los Angeles Chargers owner Barron Hilton will visit this city sometime during the week, according to Chamber of Commerce official Albert Anderson.

Rumors of an impending move of the Chargers franchise from Los Angeles to San Diego have been circulating lately.

Gophers to be In Top Shape For Huskies

Warmath Changes Tune on Monday's Rose Bowl Classic

PASADENA — UP — Minnesota Coach Murray Warmath, who had been displeased with his team's conditioning in preparing for the Rose Bowl battle with Washington, now appears confident the Gophers will be in top shape for the game Jan. 2.

Warmath said Tuesday the Big Ten champions would begin tapering off after Thursday's scheduled heavy workout and then drill only lightly on Friday and Saturday. He added that today Minnesota would continue with the second of three practice sessions which he called "our hardest" since the team arrived on the West Coast.

Owens Preparing for Minnesota Surprise

LONG BEACH — UP — If Minnesota should pull off a surprise or two against Washington in its Rose Bowl clash Jan. 2 it won't be because Husky Coach Jim Owens has overlooked any phase of the Big Ten champion's attack.

Though Minnesota is known primarily as a grind-out-the-yardage club which passes little, Owens Tuesday had his Huskies concentrate on pass defense in their workout. The Washington coach said there was always the possibility the Golden Gophers would unleash a heavy aerial game.

Bob Schloredt, who Owens said would probably split quarterbacking duties with starter Bob Hivner, officially advanced to the first team Tuesday to share signal-calling duties with Hivner.

Pietrangeli Wins Over Fraser in Davis Cup Final

SYDNEY, Australia — UP — Nicola Pietrangeli salvaged some tennis honor for Italy today when he defeated a hobbled Neale Fraser of Australia's victorious Davis Cup tennis team, 11-9, 6-3, 1-6, 6-2, in the final match of the challenge round.

Pietrangeli's triumph, which followed Australian Rod Laver's 9-7, 6-2, 6-3 victory over Orlando Sirola in the first of the day's windup singles matches, set the final score at 4-1 in the Aussies' favor.

Urge Early Action on Box Seats for Angels

Kenneth Kirk, chairman of the Desert Angels Committee, today asked that people interested in getting box seats for Los Angeles Angels games here, contact either himself or the DAC office in The Center at the earliest moment.

Box tickets are available to guarantors only, at $50 each. They can choose two of the box seats.

The agreement for a guarantor consists of a pledge to back any deficit of the Desert Angels Committee in bringing the L. A. Angels here for Springs training. Each guarantor pledges no less than $500, which of course may not be needed, but entitles them to have their names published in the programs.

Kirk said that there were now approximately 75 persons signed up for tickets, which is about half that available, and a few more have signed up as guarantors, but did not take tickets.

HONEYMOON COUPLE JOHN DALY and the new Mrs. Daly, the former Virginia Warren, stroll along Waikiki Beach with diamond head behind them as they begin a Hawaiian honeymoon. Married Wednesday, the couple will be in the islands until Friday, then will return home. Mrs. Daly is the daughter of U.S. Chief Justice Earl Warren. (UPI Telephoto)

SURPRISED SPEECHLESS was Mrs. Bertha Swift, Moose Lodge publicist, when Moose governor Pat Bargerstock presented her with a commendatory plaque for services in the past year. Mrs. Swift exclaimed, "I can't say anything"—and for the next 30 seconds she couldn't. Award was made in Saturday evening social at Moose Lodge here. (Desert Sun Photo)

OPTIMISTS FETE SCOUTS FOR YULE

Members of Palm Springs Boy Scout Troop 189 had a full-scale Optimistic Christmas party at the Tennis Club last week.

The Troop, sponsored by the Palm Springs Optimist Club, gathered in the upper dining room for a dinner entertainment headed by Optimists Joe Spata and Jimmy Tattler.

Police chief Gus Kettmann made introductions for the gala fete, after invocation by the Rev. Thomas J. Flahive, pastor of Our Lady of Guadalupe Catholic Church. A highlight of the dinner program was reading of a personal note from President Dwight Eisenhower, who was made an honorary Palm Springs Optimist by club president Roy Randolph. Tony Consentino, Chicago and Palm Springs resident active in civic affairs here, called from Chicago to wish the Scouts a Merry Christmas.

Randolph, wearing his recently-bestowed Tenderfoot Scout badge, presided at the meeting, aided by Scoutmaster Robert Ashbaugh and Duke Masterson. Scouts Brian McKinnon and Larry Hagerty were awarded Christmas turkeys. Other prizes and favors were awarded the remainder of the Troop.

State Will Open Bids on '99' Job

SACRAMENTO UPI — The state will open bids Jan. 26 in Los Angeles on a $53,000 project to remodel and expand facilities at the highways division maintenance station on U. S. 99 at Oasis, Riverside County.

Three Burglaries Reported in DHS

Sheriff's deputies today are investigating the burglary of three Desert Hot Springs homes that were apparently entered Christmas night.

In all three cases, the homes had been entered by breaking a window with a rock, which was left inside the house, and unlocking the windows.

Although a list of stolen items was not available, deputies said that the objects of the burglaries were apparently television sets and radios.

The homes burglarized belonged to W. H. Sweet, 71-190 Dillon Road; Robert W. Hall of Burbank; and Leo Gogerty of Anaheim.

Soviet Union Backs Oppressed

MOSCOW UPI—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today the Soviet Union would join the "oppressed people" of the world in any "decisive struggle" against colonialism.

SANTA GREET'S STUDENT BODY of Kiddie Kollege during Saturday morning visit to the Palm Springs pre-school facility. Approximately 40 youngsters lined up to receive gifts and candy from the rotund elf and gaped in awe as he mounted his automobile following the session and left for other spots. Santa appears a little snowed under here. (Desert Sun Photo)

Colony Grieving For Manuel Arreola

El dicho dice (the saying goes) . . . The show must go on . . . Yes a pesar de (in spite of) grief and sorrow, life must go on, that is for the people who go on living . . . Here I write this week with trembling hand, con el corazón partido por el dolor (with the heart broken because of pain) with tears in my eyes because of sorrow.

All this is due because of the great shock received when we heard que nuestro sobrino (that our nephew) Manuel M. Arreola was killed in a collision con una maquina de tren (with a diesel engine), how it happened? Nadie sabe (no one knows) some say he was racing, he never liked racing; others say his car stopped as if electrified. No se puede saber (we don't know).

He had a steady job, had a nice home, a good education, his brothers and sisters, Tenia toda su vida (he had all his life) ahead of him. He was a fine healthy young man . . . why these things happen, we don't know, guess we can call it Fate.

MANUEL ARREOLA of 322 Hargrave in Banning was the son of the late Enrique Arreola who died Oct. 30, 1959, su madre (his mother) was the late Francisca Mar-molejo, he was born Marzo (March) 29, 1932 in Banning, attending Grammar School y comenzó (and started) his High School education cuando decidio (when he decided) the Army needed him more than he needed the schooling . . . so at 17 he joined the army.

He was in the army six years, and was released a master sergeant in 1955 . . . Upon his release he came to Los Angeles y estudio (and studied) under the G. I. bill, taking electronics in which he majored, at present todavia atendi (he was still attending) school in San Bernardino.

He leaves cinco (five) brothers Henry of Whittier, Abraham of Montebello, Thomas of the Marines, in Okinawa, Rudolfo a paratrooper stationed in Germany and Larry of Fort Ord . . . Las hermanas (the sisters) are Amparo Elizondo, Estela Rios, Sally Herrera, and Miss Gloria Arreola, his maternal grandmother, Jovita Romero, and era sobrino (was the nephew) of Sidronia Villegas, Carmen Martinez and yours truly of Palm Springs . . . Que descanse en Paz! . . . May God bless you Y . . . Hasta . . . Luego.
